

Come fly with me!

Ever been tempted to jump on a plane without knowing your destination? Mystery Flights puts the fun and spontaneity back into travelling.

By Christine Paul.

TO ADVERTISE IN
FIFTY PLUS LIFESTYLE'S
TRAVEL LIFT-OUT GUIDE
PLEASE CALL
02 4334 7965

Imagine flying off to an unknown destination just waiting to be explored! Where you go is a mystery, what you do when you get there is entirely up to you. You might choose to shop, swim, wine and dine or simply relax at the hotel. The choice is yours. Chosen for their sense of fun and adventure and forever popular as a gift, - a Mystery Flight is sure to delight!

Established in 2006 Mystery Flights - www.mysteryflights.com.au - has since flown thousands of travellers to unknown destinations within Australia. An Australian-owned, independent online travel business based in Sydney, Australia, Mystery Flights is a licensed travel agent and is not affiliated with any airline or accommodation group.

Bigger and better than ever before, Mystery Flights now offers sleek and sophisticated short-breaks, including hotel accommodation, transfers, flights to a mystery destination and a Mystery Bag containing your Mystery Flight details and "surprise goodies".

Mystery Flights offers a choice of one and two-night packages to one of 17 possible destinations and the ever popular day tour to one of nine destinations within Australia - the perfect solution to the ultimate gift for someone or for a getaway that is something out of the ordinary. After all everybody loves a mystery!

Travellers departing from Adelaide or those choosing to take a Day Trip will be flown to one of 11 possible destinations. Each destination offers its own attractions and activities. While you do receive some tourist information regarding your destination, travellers are under no obligation to do or visit anything particular. What you choose to do is entirely up to you.

Louise Yeandle, Managing Director says, "Mystery Flights appeal to anyone with a sense of fun and adventure. A Mystery Flight is a unique experience that is easy to organise and simple to book.

"Mystery Flights are short-term package holidays. A Mystery Flight is all about, fun, adventure, romance and excitement, with a little bit of craziness thrown in!

Mystery Flights appeal to individuals, couples, groups and corporates alike. Mystery Flights have proved popular for, wedding anniversaries, birthday presents, end-of-season sports club trips, company staff incentives, client rewards and Christmas parties," she says.

The company is unique in that they offer fixed price packages and don't charge surcharges for 'peak periods.'

"This is a major reason why our gift vouchers are so popular. Mystery Flights are easy to organise. All our travellers have to do is decide when they wish to go. We make all the travel arrangements, supply a sealed itinerary and provide the mystery and surprise," Louise says.

Customers have been quick to praise Mystery Flights with glowing testimonials.

"We had a great day, shopped at the markets at South Bank, went on a river lunch time cruise, checked out the restaurants and returned to Sydney that night. Everything was fantastic we can't wait to go again. What a day!! Thank you," says traveller Dianne Jason was another who enjoyed the flight.

"Great hotel, great destination. Good to not have to spend time planning the trip," he says.

Megan also expressed her enjoyment.

"All the arrangements were very well organised. Thank you. We will go again! And also thank you for being so professional and efficient with your customer service."

Departing from Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Adelaide, Mystery Flight packages can be booked for any day of the week. Bookings can be made online via www.mysteryflights.com.au or by calling 02 8231 6617.